Tour

General tourist information about Gothenburg can be obtained from official websites of the Gothenburg Tourism Board:

Dress

During the summer the weather in Sweden is mild and pleasant. Pack casual summer clothes, like a few medium-weight sweaters, a light jacket or raincoat. An overcoat might be necessary in September.

Comfortable, low-heeled shoes are important, not only for the countryside, but also for sightseeing along cobblestone streets in Gothenburg.

Swedes like fashion. However, they avoid standing out in glitzy attire and will never abandon their jeans for too long. In the restaurants and for business, a jacket and tie are expected for gentlemen. Trousers are acceptable for women on any occasion, including business.

Tipping

- A service charge is automatically included in most Swedish hotel bills. Tipping for special services provided by hotel staff is fine, but is not expected and is simply a matter of personal taste.
- At restaurants, a service charge is included in the bill, but a small gratuity is expected for evening meals.
- Taxi drivers should be given a few extra kronor.
- Porters and cloakroom attendants often charge fixed fees. Doormen at hotels and restaurants are tipped modestly.
